A Guide to Calling Bids and
Awarding Construction Contracts

2 0 1 8

The Canadian Construction Documents Committee (CCDC) is a national joint committee responsible for the development, production and review of standard Canadian construction contracts, forms and guides. Formed in 1974 the CCDC is made up of volunteer representatives from:

- Public Sector Owners
- Private Sector Owners
- Canadian Bar Association (Ex-Officio)
- *The Association of Canadian Engineering Companies
- *The Canadian Construction Association
- *Construction Specifications Canada
- *The Royal Architectural Institute of Canada

*Committee policy and procedures are directed and approved by the four constituent national organizations.

For general information on the CCDC, documents published by the CCDC, and the development and proper usage of CCDC standard documents, refer to the CCDC website ccdc.org.

This guide is provided as a service to the industry for general information only. It is not intended that anything in this guide constitute legal advice, and the reader must not use the guide for that purpose. Qualified legal counsel should always be consulted in connection with any specific issues arising in the particular circumstances of each case. CCDC is not responsible for any errors or omissions.
