A Guide to Model Forms and Support Documents

(for use with CCDC 2 – 2008)

2 0 1 6

The Canadian Construction Documents Committee (CCDC) is a national joint committee responsible for the development, production and review of standard Canadian construction contracts, forms and guides. Formed in 1974 the CCDC is made up of volunteer representatives from:

- Public Sector Owners
- Private Sector Owners
- Canadian Bar Association (Ex-Officio)
- *Association of Canadian Engineering Companies
- *Canadian Construction Association
- *Construction Specifications Canada
- *Royal Architectural Institute of Canada

*Committee policy and procedures are directed and approved by the four constituent national organizations.

For general information on the Canadian Construction Documents Committee (CCDC), documents published by the CCDC, and the development and proper usage of CCDC standard documents, refer to the CCDC website (ccdc.org).

This Guide is provided as a service to the industry for general information only. It is not intended that anything in this Guide constitute legal advice, and the reader must not use the Guide for that purpose. Qualified legal counsel should always be consulted in connection with any specific issues arising in the particular circumstances of each case. CCDC is not responsible for any errors or omissions.
